

Sevenoaks Swimming Club have been shortlisted as 'Young Sports Team of the Year' in the Courier Media group awards.

The club will be featured in the Kent and Sussex Courier & Sevenoaks Chronicle this week (ending Jan 29th). There will be voting coupons in publications for this week and the following two weeks. Votes can also be cast by SMS text.

If you wish to vote for the club, please look at the relevant newspaper pages to decide which method you find most appropriate.

It is magnificent that swimming as a sport, and Sevenoaks Swimming Club in particular, are seriously considered as contenders for such awards. The positive publicity is anticipated to be a major benefit for the club.

Well done to all swimmers for earning the accolade of the shortlisting!
